

Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy sets out how we, Development Initiatives Poverty Research Ltd., obtain, store and use your personal information when you use or interact with our website, <http://covid19.humportal.org/> (our website).

This Privacy Policy is effective from 3rd June 2020.

We reserve the right to modify this policy at any time, so please check it frequently.

1. The information we collect

We collect data that you provide indirectly that may include personal data. “Personal Data” is information that identifies you.

For our website, this is collected only in the context of website analytics information. Information about your computer and about your visits to and use of this website (including information about your browser, your IP address, your general location as determined from your IP address and provided by your browser, the site from which you came and the links followed when leaving our site) is also collected through cookies.

N.B. IP addresses which are considered as personal data are anonymised before being stored.

2. How we use your information

How is the information used?

We use this information to understand your needs and provide you with a better service, particularly for the following reasons:

- To supply to you services provided via the website
- For statistical purposes and analysis for management purposes in order to administer the website or improve the website experience

The legal basis for such processing of your Personal Data is therefore your consent (Art. 6(1)(a) GDPR). Please note that you are not legally required to provide us with your Personal Data.

3. Your rights

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), you have the following rights:

- Right of access (Art. 15 GDPR): You have the right to request confirmation as to whether or not your Personal Data is being processed, and, where that is the case, to request access to the Personal Data and information such as the purposes of the processing or the categories of Personal Data concerned.
- Right to rectification (Art. 16 GDPR): You have the right to request the correction of inaccurate Personal Data.
- Right to erasure (Art. 17 GDPR): You have the right to request erasure of Personal Data without undue delay under certain circumstances, e.g. if your Personal Data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected or if you withdraw consent on which processing is based according to Art. 6 (1)(a) GDPR and where there is no other legal ground for processing.
- Right to restriction of processing (Art. 18 GDPR): You have the right to request us to restrict the processing of your Personal Data under certain circumstances, e.g. if you think that the Personal Data we process about you is incorrect or unlawful.
- Right to data portability (Art. 20 GDPR): Under certain circumstances, you have the right to receive your Personal Data you have provided us with, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and you have the right to transmit that information to another controller without hindrance or ask us to do so.
- Right to object (Art. 21 GDPR): You have the right to object to the processing of your Personal Data under certain circumstances. In particular if we process your Personal Data on the basis on legitimate interest (Art. 6 (1)(b) GDPR) or if we use your personal data for marketing purposes.

You may assert those rights at any time by emailing us to correct or change any information or request which Personal Data (e.g. name, address) we have stored or to assert any other of your rights as mentioned above by emailing us at privacy@devinit.org.

4. Data retention

We delete any Personal Data as soon as it is no longer required for the purposes we have collected your Personal Data as outlined in this Privacy Policy.
